Professional Success.
DR. H. A. BARROWS' practice in Bangor has been extremely successful. He has restored several patients to sound and vigorous health, whose cases were considered incurable. He continues to be confidently consulted at his rooms, at his private office, 18 Main Street, Bangor, Maine, in all those cases of disease for the treatment of which he is so justly celebrated. Hundreds are suffering from the effects of early indiscretion because they have not consulted the educated Physician who has made these diseases a specialty, and therefore endowed with every qualification for success, restoring the patients to health and strength.
Dr. Barrow's treatment during an extensive practice of many years is eminently successful in curing Nervous, Mental and Physical Debility, Languor, Depression of Spirits, Painful Dreams, Loss of Appetite, Memory, &c. His great experience, the high honors and testimonials he has received for his superior treatment of those diseases requiring skillful and confidential advice, enables him to assure a safe and speedy cure.
The Doctor particularly invites those patients whose cases have been neglected or pronounced incurable, to place themselves without delay under his care, assuring them that all that can be accomplished by science, skill, and the successful results of a long practice will be at their service.
He distinctly states that no case will be undertaken unless a permanent cure can be guaranteed. All letters containing the usual consultation fee, $5, and fully describing the case, will be immediately attended to.
Hours of consultation from 9 in the morning till 1 P. M., and from 3 till 8, and from that time till 8 in the evening, at the Franklin House.
18 MAIN STREET, BANGOR.
Dr. Barrow's popular Medical Work entitled "Human Frailty," splendidly illustrated with engravings, extended by the most eminent artists, forwarded free every where on receipt of 25 cents. A dollar and parcels for Dr. Barrow to be directed to Franklin House, Bangor, Me.

CAMPAIGN SLANDERS.

The systematic personal abuse and slander of President Grant by the prominent Greeley organs and advocates has reached the very sublimity of impudence. Because these miserable inventions of his enemies are not publicly refuted by the President himself they affect to believe that their truth is admitted, and boldly parade them before the public as reasons why he should not be re-elected.—There are a few of these Greeley organs which are combined together in the dirty work of inventing and circulating these false and scandalous stories, and they have reduced the business to a regular system. In the first place, one of them manufactured a declamatory statement of some conduct on transaction of Gen. Grant, which the writer prefaces with an "it is said," or "it is alleged," in order to screen himself from responsibility. Then the confederates catch up the false story and repeat it in their columns as an actual positive statement of fact, without the qualifying reservation, and thus it is scattered broadcast through the country to be copied by the press and repeated by partisan speakers. It is also a part of the system never to contradict a story once started, however clear and direct a refutation may be made; but simply to drop it and manufacture another to take its place.

In this way a miserable falsehood was manufactured and circulated through the country that President Grant's cottage at Long Branch was given to him as a bribe to secure the appointment of Mr. Murphy as collector of the customs at New York. But the fact existed, and was susceptible of proof, that the property was bought by the President and paid for with his own money. When this was made to appear, the slanderers never took back their false charge, but quietly let it drop and started in its place the equally scandalous and disgraceful allegation that the President accepted a free gift of a large tract of land in Illinois as a consideration for appointing J. R. Jones as Minister to Belgium. This libellous invention has had the same wide circulation that the Long Branch story had, and the miserable authors and venders of this political garbage have hypocritically professed their pain and anguish at being obliged to make public such an imputation upon the chief magistrate of the nation. If their sentiments were not those of joy rather than pain and anguish, why did they not investigate the facts upon which their calumny was founded, before they uttered the shameful invention? Governor Jewell of Connecticut has taken the pains to follow the slanderers along their slimy track, and he has detected and exposed the vile calumny, and thrown to the worst that in its Illinois case as in the Long Branch purchase, the President bought the property in question, and paid for it with his own money, paying a large advance in price above that at which Mr. James acquired his own interest in the same property. This matter is fully treated by Mr. Jewell in his speech at the Cooper Institute in New York city last night.

It is against the policy of these professional stabbers of reputation to retract their falsehoods, and in the matter of this Illinois land slander, they will merely let it drop now that their wickedness is exposed, and start something else to take its place. Of the same character was the drunken story told by Gen. Kilpatrick, that the President appointed Judge Hoar as Attorney-General in compensation for "a library worth $25,000," given him by the judge. The judge, though not now in office, voluntarily contradicted this falsehood by a published letter over his own signature, stating that he never gave the President any library matter, nor did he pay in such a gift. And so of the petty slanders as to intemperance, brought forward by a contemptable time-server by the name of Dennison and paraded at large in the Greeley organs. These statements have been completely refuted by Gen. Wilson, Col. Webster of the army and other responsible men.—And yet, not one of these false and abusive allegations as to the President's business transactions or personal habits, though all of them shown to be maliciously false, has been or will be retracted by their authors and circulators. No; they were invented as a contribution to political capital; their disavowal will diminish that capital, and so they will be persisted in or dropped in silence.

What the people think of this personal abuse and slander of the President is shown by the late elections in Vermont and Maine, which speak the honest New England voice of censure and condemnation against the wanton libellers of a gallant and faithful public servant. We do not wonder that the results exhibited in those two States should prompt the Greeley advocates to exclaim that their cause is lost unless they can enlist some new element of opposition to Gen. Grant.—The current falsehoods and misrepresentations have not produced the intended effect, and they now contemplate resorting to new ones. But even the truth from such a questionable source would now scarcely be believed.—[Boston Globe.

GEN. GRANT AT SHILOH.

LETTER FROM GEN. LEW. WALLACE.

Gen. Lew. Wallace has published the following very interesting letter in the Omaha Tribune and Republican:

CRAWFORDSVILLE, INDIANA, August 30, 1872.

I am in receipt of your letter of the 23d instant, asking if General Grant was drunk at the battles of Donelson and Shiloh, and requesting full particulars.

It was my fortune to be one of the council of war, assembled on General Grant's boat at Fort Henry, the day before the army moved on Fort Donelson. The council was in session the greater part of the afternoon. General Grant presided in person, and was perfectly sober. There was a box of cigars on the table, but no liquor of any kind was seen or drunk.

The army marched next morning (Feb. 12). I shook hands with Gen. Grant when he mounted his horse and took his place in the column. He was perfectly sober then.

The general left me behind in command of Fort Henry; but by order, I rejoined him on the 14th at noon. He was in his headquarters, close in rear of Gen. C. F. Smith's line of intrenchments. There were crackers, coffee and cigars, but no liquor. In my presence Gen. Smith wrote an order constituting the three brigades of the army, specifying precisely the regiments in each, placing noble Fred Nelson at the head of the rest, and assigning me to command. I have not dropped dead yet.—It a lengthy list in Gen. C's own hand, as he sat on his horse, dictating to him. Reading the roll of regiments, he remarked to me, "Wallace, I wish I had a brigade of such men as these!" Nelson's brigade was made up of such regiments.

The battle next morning was of great interest; in fact, it was the crisis of the battle. He was mounted, and held a telegram just received. He heard the story calmly and without interruption; then he flushed up, and crushing the dispatch, ordered the assault. The flushing of the face was not from liquor, it was the visible emotion natural to man in a position of vast responsibility resolving suddenly upon a decisive action. The draft upon his will can be appreciated by his enemies even, when they are told that the telegram he griped so hard was from Gen. Halleck, directing him to retire, throw up defensive works, and wait for reinforcements. Had he, failing the inspiration of his own genius, obeyed that order, Donelson would have been in our arms the empty success that Corinth was a little later. He was perfectly sober throughout the interview, and left us to direct a simultaneous assault by Gen. C. F. Smith.

The morning of the surrender, after occupying the rebel works on the left of their lines, I breakfasted with Gen. Bunker at his headquarters in Dover. An hour or two thereafter Gen. Grant appeared. I was with him some time. He wrote an order directing me to return to Fort Henry with my division. He was perfectly sober.

Next as to Pittsburg Landing.

Sunday morning, the first day of the battle Gen. Grant, hastening from Savanna to the field, fast as steam could carry him, stopped his boat alongside mine to ask some questions. A conversation took place between us across the guards of the steamers. Had he been in the slightest degree intoxicated, I should have observed it. He was perfectly sober.

At ten o'clock, from the field, he sent me an order to march to Pittsburg Landing.—Unfortunately, the officer that brought it, by a mistake in its delivery, sent me to join the right of the army at a point four miles from the landing. When the mistake was corrected, I had marched, and put the whole army between me and Pittsburg Landing.—To save my division, and make the junction at the Landing, it was necessary to march back entirely around the left of the enemy.—The movement took the afternoon, so that I did not see General Grant again that day.

Next morning, in the grey of the dawn, he came to me, and in person, ordered my advance to the attack. I one orderly was his entire escort. The following was the interview almost verbatim:

"Good morning," he said to me.

I raised my cap and replied—

"Good morning, sir."

"Your guns are at work early."

"Yes," I said; "and if you will observe, I have two batteries on one. The affair can't last long."

He studied the direction of my line awhile, and then asked—

"Are you ready to attack?"

"Yes, sir."

He turned his horse's head toward the enemy, and with a quiet wave of the hand, said, calmly, as if sitting in a parlor,—"Then move straight out there."

As he started off, I called to him—

"Do you wish me to attack in any particular order?"

"No. I leave that to your own discretion. Good morning."

He was perfectly sober, and as confident as he was sober.

I saw him again about five o'clock in the afternoon. We were driving the enemy.—Riding to my side he said:

"We are getting along very well. I think you had better make a quarter of a wheel to the right here, and change direct on a little."

"If I do that," I replied, "my left flank will be without support."

"I'll see to that."

He was perfectly sober when he left me.

This is a plain, unvarnished statement of what I saw of General Grant during the battles to which you have alluded. Afterward I was his guest for weeks at City Point, and with him at table and on the road. I do not believe he touched liquor in that time.

Still later, he was several times my guest at the Eutaw House in Baltimore. On such occasions I never failed to have wine for dinner, and he invariably refused to drink it.

In conclusion, it is my opinion that General Grant's career and successes are impossible to a drunkard.

Very respectfully, yours,
LEW WALLACE.

Mayo, together with a party of New York capitalists, representing capital of $15,000, started Wednesday for a survey of a proposed railroad along the river shore, between this city and Rockland, preliminary to the beginning of active operations in the construction of this important link of railway communication.

The fishing schooner Eureka, arrived at Gloucester on Saturday from a fishing voyage, bringing the dead body of one of the crew, Mr. William Leach of York, a man about 33 years of age. Mr. Leach had been unwell about a week, and about ten o'clock Saturday morning, the vessel being about ten miles outside of Eastern Point, he stood at the foot of the cabin steps as if about to go on deck, when he was apparently seized with a fit, and being half upon the ship's floor, died immediately.

The Governor and Council were in session Wednesday. A hearing was had on the claim of [illegible] for damages for the [illegible] of lands and [illegible] by the government for [illegible] at Eastport. The Governor has made the following appointments: [illegible] Kennebunk Port, [illegible] Z. Thibeto, [illegible] Treasurer, [illegible] Bangor;

National Republican Nominations

FOR PRESIDENT,

Ulysses S. Grant,

OF ILLINOIS.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

Henry Wilson,

OF MASSACHUSETTS.

"Gen. Grant never has been beaten and he never will be"—HORACE GREELEY.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS:

For Electors at Large,
Hon. S. E. SPRING, of Portland.
Hon. ALEX. CAMPBELL, of Cherryfield.
First District—JAMES H. McMULLAN.
Second District—JOHN H. KIMBALL.
Third District—JAMES ERSKINE.

"LES MISERABLES."

The desperate writhings of the coalitionists under the lash of the Maine election returns are painful to witness. The Commercial founders about in a half-dazed condition, fumbling over confused figures to show a Democratic net gain in some obscure town on some vote of a remote period; the Argus pretends to forget that the election Monday and its republishing its frantic but rejected slanders and appeals, and the N. Y. Tribune actually discusses the overwhelming rout of its forces in Maine as "An assurance of Victory!"

Never before was such a stint set for poor old Mark Tapleys as the extraction of consolation from the returns of the Dirigo State for the friends of an utterly obliterated faction. It is simply the most crushing and irretrievable rout ever suffered by a political party, and there is not one solitary ray of light to break the gloom of despair which has settled upon the Greeley cause. Let the poor creatures figure; it may keep them from the mad-house, and while they peg away at their melancholy cyphering, we will content ourselves with furnishing them with fresh news of Republican gains from every quarter. Our returns now foot up 16,952 majority for Governor Perham, and we hardly know what figures the Congressional majorities will reach. We understand that the astounded Democracy contemplate advertising for those "Liberal Republicans, missing since September 3, 1872."

ELECTION NOTES.

A plucky woman in Temple! An old Democrat in that town called on a lady, when the subject of voting was brought up. She asked him why he didn't carry a respectable ticket. He said—"If you will agree to get a team and carry me to the Town House I'll vote just as you say." She did so—furnished him with a straight Republican ticket, and he cast it, promising her that he would vote for Grant and Wilson in November. When the women take such an interest in politics, the right will surely prevail.

The Portsmouth (N. H.) Chronicle says: "A Kittery Democrat who waited on this side of the river for the election news, Monday night, tells a good joke on himself. On landing at Kittery at four o'clock in the morning, he was met by a rooster. The rooster crowed four times and was kicked at, but only jumped aside, held up his head, looked the man in the eye, flapped his wings and crowed again." The Eastport Sentinel says, "the merchant of this town who was reported quite early in the Greeley campaign by the Associated Press Agent here as having hoisted the Greeley and Brown flag, came down Tuesday morning before five o'clock and removed the names of Greeley and Brown and P. A. Pike, and to-day his banner floats bearing only the stars and stripes. He remarked to a passer-by to-day who noticed the change that he wanted no more dirt on his flag. It will not surprise us to find Grant and Wilson upon that flag some morning."

THE CHICAGO TIMES ON MAINE. The leading Democratic paper of the West says that "the returns from Maine are quite sufficient to indicate the result, and the result is quite sufficient to indicate that the Greeley business is the most absurd and contemptible fiasco in the history of American politics." It adds: "The truth is that Mr. Greeley is proving to be of more service to the Radicals in the character of leader of the opposite party than he was in the capacity of editor of their principal organ. Can the men who have been deluded or dragooned into providing him their support, longer resist the evidences of this fact? The remedy is not yet out of their hands, and if they fail to apply it, they will be held guilty of squandering opportunities with a profligacy that amounts to madness."

"A letter received in Washington from the Hon. F. A. Pike of Calais, says he has just returned from a tour through his district, and that the prospect of success are excellent. He thinks the Liberals will carry the district."—[Maine Standard.

Reliable Standard; unfortunate Pike!

The last dispatch from Bancroft Davis, our agent at Geneva, is to the effect that the gross amount awarded by the Tribunal is fifteen million seven hundred and thirty-two thousand dollars.

Hon. John P. Hale, another of the pioneer Abolitionists, publishes a vigorous letter in support of President Grant.

A few days before election the Commercial prophesied thus:

You can bet with perfect safety that somebody is going to be astonishing! well whipped next Monday.

Emery Pike, Lang, Kimball et als., have doubtless found out who "somebody" is.

The press states that Charles F. Kimball announces that he shall retire altogether from politics after this time beyond doubt. The people of Maine have twice advised him very emphatically to take that sensible course.

The Secretary of War was in consultation with the President Wednesday with regard to the Indian troubles. It is believed that the Administration will at once proceed to very vigorous measures, and that the Indians who have refused peace will be made to feel the Government can reach them even in the most remote parts of the country.

It is said of the assassin Pinkerton, who shot Mr.

THE SOLDIERS' AND SAILORS' CONVENTION.

The meeting of soldiers and sailors of the city, who served during the Rebellion, was well attended at the Wigwam last evening. Geo. E. Small was elected chairman and briefly stated the object to be the selection of delegates to the great Mass Convention of Veterans desiring the re-election of Gen. U. S. Grant as President of the United States, to be held at Pittsburgh, Pa., on the 17th and 18th instants. In accordance with a vote of the meeting, the chairman appointed Maj. S. W. Thaxter, Capt. E. W. Ware, and Capt. J. D. Warren as a committee to recommend the names of three delegates and three alternates, it having been suggested that a larger delegation would be inexpedient owing to the immense throng which will be gathered in Pittsburgh, taxing the facilities for accommodation to the utmost. The committee by their chairman Maj. Thaxter, reported the following delegates and alternates, who were unanimously elected:—

DELEGATES:

E. W. Ware and Ed. S. Thompson, late of the Army; C. A. Boutelle, late of the Navy.

ALTERNATES:

J. A. Dow, and A. C. Hamlin, late of the Army; J. J. Warren, late of the Navy.

It was voted that the delegates have power to fill any vacancies that may be necessary, and after a cordial interchange of sentiments, evincing the unanimous purpose to labor earnestly for the re-election of Gen. Grant, the meeting adjourned.

The republican committees of Pittsburgh are busily engaged in providing accommodations for the visitors. Every available hotel, public building and warehouse has been secured, and will be retained for the accommodation of the visiting delegates. It will be necessary for them to provide themselves with blankets as the great demand exceeds the supply. A number of delegates will attend with tents.

The Veterans' National Committee have secured tickets for delegates to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention from New York to Pittsburg and return, at the low rate of ten dollars. These tickets will be good to go on from now until the 15th and to return on until the 25th, inst. The tickets can be procured of the Committee at room No 1, Fifth Avenue Hotel. A special train will leave Jersey City depot at 8:30 P. M., Sunday, Sept. 15th, arriving at Pittsburg at 2:30 on the following day.

GREELEY STOCK IN WISCONSIN. A gentleman in this city is informed by a friend writing from Monticello, Green County, Wisconsin, that after great efforts to organize a Greeley and Brown Club in that place, but three men assembled at the place of meeting, and they concluded to give up the project. On the same evening a Grant and Wilson Club was started with thirty active members. The writer says he does not know of a Democrat in that vicinity who takes any stock in Greeley.

DRAWING GREELEY WAGERS. The example of Ben Wood of New York, in payin, $1000 forfeit money on the bet of $10,000 that Greeley would be the next President, is being followed by many other persons at the Fifth Avenue Hotel Astor House, and other resorts. Bets amounting in the aggregate to $13,000 were compromised Wednesday by men who wagered on Greeley, paying from eight to fifteen per cent. for release. One bet of $100 was compromised by a Greeley man by paying $18.

"HAVE YOU HEARD THE NEWS FROM MAINE?" It is now, as in 1840, "all good and true." Vermont and Maine are pre-eminently representative States. The hardy sons of those rural districts have ever kept the fires of patriotism and loyalty burning. They gave their treasure and blood during the rebellion in defence of the Government and Union, as freely as they give their votes now against a wicked and profligate bargain, designed to place the Government in the hands of apostate and unrepenting traitors. The glorious result in Maine, following so close upon the heels of that in Vermont, destroys the hopes and confounds the calculations of the most infamous political intrigue that ever disgraced this or any other country.—[N. Y. Times.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Sumner's letter of acceptance—By our intuitive special: "I—I—I—I—I—I—I—I—I—I—I—I—I."—[Boston Traveller.

In the city of Bangor, Me., Gen. Hersey, Republican candidate for Congress, beats Emery, the Bourbon-Democratic candidate 572 votes. This ought to teach the Bourbons wisdom, but it won't.—[Boston Journal.

The hardest problem of the rule of three:—If "Liberalism" produces an increase of 6000 regular Republican majority in a single State how much of an increase will it produce in the whole United States?

Mr. Sumner sneeringly and coarsely said he hadn't missed Speaker Blaine. The people of his district have wisely concluded that they couldn't afford to miss him, and so have re-elected him by an increased majority.

The Crow party in Vermont, says the Buffalo Express, did elect the Liberal Republican to the Legislature. That fellow will commit suicide in less than a week after the opening of the session from sheer loneliness.

They have a Democratic orator out West who can empty a school house in twenty minutes. He is less effective than Kilpatrick, who can talk Democracy and make more Republican converts than any man living. For proof see Maine and Vermont elections.

H. G. will make no more pilgrimages during his candidacy. The result of his journey through Maine must have gone home even to his enormous self-conceit. Hereafter, until the inevitable Salt River voyage, he will be likely to confine his public utterances to what he knows about farming.

It appears that the announcement of the name of the poet, Henry W. Longfellow, as a delegate to the Liberal Convention at Worcester was unauthorized. Under date of the 10th inst. he writes that his name was used in that connection without his knowledge or consent. "I do not," he says, "vote with that party."

An Indiana lady announces the speedy publication of a work entitled "The Declension and Probable Fall of the Great Republic of the United States." The work was probably suggested by the author's fear that the Cincinnati ticket would be successful. The Maine election comes just in time to calm her perturbed soul.

The Republican ticket for State officers in Missouri is hailed with enthusiasm. The St. Louis Globe says: "It means the redemption of the State. Like the election of Grant, the success of the ticket is a conclusion foregone." The St. Louis Democrat says: "With such a ticket as we have selected, and upon the issues presented by our platform, we enter the contest in Missouri with a purpose to redeem the State from the miracle we now suffer at the hands of those who have betrayed the public interests."

Senator Brownlow of Tennessee writes:—"I have no idea that Greeley and Brown will carry more than five or seven States, and the corrupt coalition which brought about their candidacy will be more disgracefully beaten than has ever been any party in the history of this country. Our grand old party could beat the Ku-Klux Democracy if it were reinforced by forty times the Greeley apostates who rally to its piratical flag."

READ OUT. Thomas Riley, in his speech at Worcester, Mass., thus dismisses John Quincy Adams from the Democratic fold:

"Inclining to them is our old standard bearer, John Quincy Adams. He might have been the Chevalier Bayard of this contest; but he has chosen his position, and we can only say to him: 'Depart in peace and return to us no more.' The remainder of his days in sackcloth and ashes will hardly suffice to wipe away from his honored name the stain which he has placed upon it."

Consumption can be Cured.

SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC,
SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS,

Are the only medicines that will cure Pulmonary Consumption.

Sometimes medicines that will stop a cough will often occasion the death of the patient. It locks up the liver, stops the circulation of the blood, hemorrhage follows, and, in fact, clogging the action of the very organs that caused the cough.

Liver complaint and dyspepsia are the causes of two-thirds of the cases of consumption. Many are now complaining with dull pain in the side, the bowels sometimes costive and sometimes too loose, tongue coated, pain in the shoulder blade, feeling sometimes very restless, and at other times drowsy; the food that is taken lies heavy on the stomach, accompanied with acidity and belching of wind. These symptoms usually originate from a disordered condition of the stomach or a torpid liver. Persons so affected, if they take one or two heavy colds, and if the cough in these cases be suddenly stopped, the lungs, liver and stomach clog, and death follows. Torpid and inactive, and feeling the patient is aware of his situation, the lungs are a mass of sores, and ulcerated, and death is the inevitable result.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup is an expectorant which does not contain any opium nor anything calculated to check a cough suddenly.

Schenck's Seaweed tonic dissolves the food, mixes with the gastric juice of the stomach, digests easily, nourishes the system and creates a healthy circulation of the blood. When the bowels are costive, skin sallow, and the patient is of a bilious habit, Schenck's Mandrake Pills are required.

These medicines are prepared by Dr. J. H. SCHENCK & SON, Northeast corner of Sixth and Arch streets, Philadelphia, and for sale by GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., Hanover street, Boston, & JOHN F. HENRY, 3 College place, New York. Wholesale Agents.

For sale by Druggists generally.

THE PENOBSCOT MUSICAL ASSOCIATION

Will hold its Twenty-fifth Annual Session in NOROMBEGA HALL, in Bangor, Me., commencing on TUESDAY MORNING, Sept. 24th, 1872, at 9 o'clock, and closing on Friday evening, Sept. 27th, under the direction of

F. S. DAVENPORT, of Bangor.

The Trustees have secured the presence and services of MISS ANNIE LOUISE CARY, whose fame is known and acknowledged in this country, and in Europe; also of

Mrs. J. A. CROWELL, Soprano;
Miss GRACE ELDRIDGE, Soprano;
Mrs E. T. WASGATT, Contralto;
Mrs. W. H. S. LAWRENCE, Contralto;
of Bangor.
Mr. JAMES WHITNEY, Tenor, New York.
Mr. JOHN L. SHAW, Bass, of Portland.
Mrs. F. S. DAVENPORT, Pianist.

SHAW'S QUARTETTE, of Portland, and a large delegation from the Haydn Association, of Portland, will be present.

The Book used by the Class, will be some collection of Church Music; selections from several Oratorio and Church Books; and the Jubilee Chorus Book, used at the late grand festival in Boston, and which previously was so successfully rehearsed by nearly 200 members of the Association, under the skilful direction of Mr. DAVENPORT. All who have copies of the latter book will please bring them to the Convention.

Such instruction and practice as teachers and leaders of choirs are more particularly interested in, and which will also be desirable to all who desire to improve themselves in the science and practice of music, will be given each morning, and as opportunity occurs during the session.

There will be three MATINEES and three CONCERTS—on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday afternoons and evenings. Tickets may be had of the Secretary, and the door of the Hall.

Members' tickets for these taking part in the exercises, and sitting with the Class, $1.00

Season tickets admitting visitors to all the session, and with secured seats at the Concerts, 2.00

(Except the front row of seats in the Gallery, which are 1 50.)

Concert tickets with secured seats according to location, 50 and 50 cents

Rehearsals and Matinees 25 cents

Sale of secured seats to commence at Duren's Bookstore on Monday, Sept. 2d. They can also be ordered by mail or otherwise.

Free return tickets to those coming by railroad or steamboat.

Persons wishing to secure boarding places will please apply early, by mail, to Mr. E. B. Bradbury, Bangor, or engage them through their friends.

The object and aims of this Association are—improvement of Choirs in the performance of Church music; the diffusion of musical knowledge; the formation of an elevated musical taste; and a genial reunion of all lovers of music.

THE HISTORICAL SOCIETY

CRUISING ALONG THE COAST—BANQUET AT WISCASSET

WISCASSET, Me, Sept. 13.

Summer Methfolloch, having on behalf of the Maine Historical Society party, left the Harbor at 3 A M yesterday morning for a cruise down Muscongus Bay and along the coast of Pemaquid Point and Damariscotta, points of interest in this locality, steamed up Johns Bay and Damariscotta River to the village of Newcastle, and then returned to this place, where the party proceeded directly after the expedition. Leaving the steamer at 1 P M, the party proceeded directly to Westport Island, where a landing was made for the examination of the Island with a view of determining the location of the alleged human interments. The steamer then returned to Wiscasset, and in the evening a complimentary banquet was tendered to the Historical Society at the Lincoln House, at which were together with the officers of the Society, all of the citizens of Wiscasset, and the Boston Hosts. At a most delightful social gathering, at which the toast of the late Hon John Merrick, of Portland, was given by Chas H Bell, Esq of Boston, and remarks were made by Hon J W. Bradbury of Augusta, Hon Wm Wilkinson of Brunswick, George B Sawyer of Wiscasset, C T Lewis, Esq of New York, Geo T Davis, Esq of Portland, John Lynch, Esq of Bangor, and Judge Virgin of the Maine Supreme Court. The expedition was in every respect successful.

FIRES IN BATH

BATH, Me, Sept 13.

A fire occurred about one o'clock this morning in the store of J Nickerson & Co, Harbor Boathouse, which was totally consumed, but fortunately the dwelling house adjoining, a good stock of grocery goods, and ship chandlery, and household furniture. Loss about two thousand dollars; insured for twenty five hundred dollars. The house of Mr McDonald's adjoining was slightly damaged. The house and dwelling of E J Grove, East Harbor, also caught fire at the same hour, but extinguished with slight damage.

NEW YORK

THE CHURCH—HIS NAME STRICKEN FROM THE ROLL

NEW YORK, Sept 13. At a meeting in Brooklyn last night against the action of the Presbytery, resolutions were passed condemning the action of the Presbytery in striking the name of Henry Ward Beecher from the roll of the church, and declaring that the Presbytery in so doing, has violated the constitution of the church, and that the action of the Presbytery in striking the name of Henry Ward Beecher from the roll of the church, was not the act of the church, and

"THE BLUE AND THE GRAY."

BY BESSIE R.

The loyal Blue and the traitor Gray
Alike in the grave are sleeping,
Lying side by side in the sun God's ray,
And under the storm-clouds weeping.
Its well to forgive the past—
God giving us grace we may,
But never, while life shall last,
Can we honor or love the Gray.

Our Boys in Blue were loyal and true,
For their Country and their country dying,
With a grateful tear for those that fell
We garland the graves where they lie lying;
They were shot down by rebel hands,
They fell in the fearful fray
Defending the Flag from traitor hands—
We do not love the Gray.

We would not forget them—our hearts would fain
Cast a veil of charity shamefull story,
It will not bring back our boys slain,
To recall their treason glory.
But barriers must still stand wide
Divide the true from the true!
Shall treason and honor stand side by side?
Is the Gray the peer of the Blue?

Answer each loyal heart to-day,
They are peers and equals never,
No wreaths on traitor graves we lay,
Let shame be the weed forever
Give love to our dead who died
To the last, honor pay,
Love and honor belong to the Blue,
But what to we owe the gray?

We owe them a hundred thousand graves
Where the loyal and lost are lying
We owe them, wherever our banner waves,
Home, filled, with tears and sighing
Do they think we forget our dead,
Our boys who wore the Blue,
That because they sleep in the same cold bed,
We know not the false from the true?

"Before it act!" Store our heroes lie
The very ground is holy,
His name who died for the right to die
Is sacred, lovely, lowly,
But honor the traitor Gray!
Make it the peer of the Blue!
One flower at the foot of treason lay!
Never while God is true!

Chilson's New Portable Range.

THIS RANGE has been got up expressly to meet the decided demand for a BETTER CLASS OF GOODS THAN HAS EVER BEEN OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC. All want the best work for the least money and in this everything will be found that can be desired in a Portable Range.

This Range, as represented in the cut, shows the ARCHED and most BEAUTIFUL DESIGN ever made in Stove Castings Only the HIGHEST GRADE of Stock, and the most THOROUGH WORKMANSHIP are admitted in this class of work

The following are some of the useful improvements of this Range

1st It has a Boiling Hole

2d It has Collars to receive the smoke-pipe on either the top or back

3d It has a nice arrangement for the admission of cold air for quickly regulating the draft, and keeping a continuous fire when desired

4th Its flues are so arranged that no heat can escape directly to the chimney without doing its work, consequently there is no unnecessary waste of fuel

5th The flues are so constructed that every part of the oven is quickly and evenly heated

6th It has Bailey's patent Water Front Fixtures, for heating water on both boilers, on whose patent the most perfect for the purpose are invented.

7th It is vaulted or double plated around the oven, thus preventing the cold air from coming in contact with the outside oven plates This is an important improvement, causing the oven to bake perfectly with a small fire

8th It has an admirable Sifting Grate and Ash Pan, so made that not a speck nor dust escape into the room whilestirring the ashes

9th It has a most convenient plan for cleaning the flues of ashes, etc

10th It is made with and without Hot Closet and Reservoirs.

11th It is very compact and makes a splendid appearance in the kitchen, projecting into the room much less than an ordinary cooking stove

12th Special care has been taken to protect this Range from cracking

13th All kinds of coal, coke or wood may be used as fuel

14th All oven doors, are tin lined

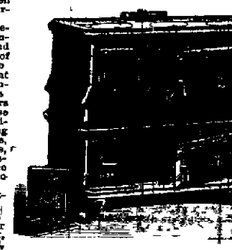
WALKER'S IMPROVED PORTABLE RANGE.



THE NEW RANGE excels anything of its kind ever offered for sale It requires much less space than ordinary cooking stoves, and is more economical. It will heat as much water as a range set in masonry.

THE HOT CLOSET retains the heat usually radiated from the bottom which is, during the summer months WORSE THAN WASTED, thereby not only SAVING FUEL, but making the KITCHEN MORE COMFORTABLE, besides furnishing an admirable place for warming and keeping food warm, warming plates, &c The door can be removed during cold weather to allow the heat to escape into the kitchen

Coals are separated from the ashes in the SIFTING CHAMBER.

THE FOLDING SHELF, together with other improvements referred to make it all we claim for it, viz THE MOST DESIRABLE COOKING APPARATUS TO BE FOUND ANYWHERE.

HOLLOWAYS

EVERY MAN HIS OWN PHYSICIAN

CAUTION.

THE former demand for HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT, has led to unprincipled parties to counterfeit those valuable medicines

In order to protect the public and ourselves, we have issued a new "Trade Mark," consisting of an Egyptian circle, or of a serpent, with the letter H in the centre Every box of genuine HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and OINTMENT will have this trade mark on it, none are genuine without it.
